

I support Governor Codey and his wish to keep the Do Not Call List as a strong deterrent to telemarketers. There are other ways to sell products and services than through phone calls to residents. Let's keep NJ as a prototype to the nation in legislation designed to combat invasive marketing strategies.